Subject: Version 3 of the ICT Development Index methodology

Dear Sir/Madam,

As announced in my Circular/BDT/DKH/IDA/013 of 3 August 2023, the International Telecommunication Union (ITU)'s Secretariat has prepared a new version of the methodology of the ICT Development Index (IDI). This 'Version 3' document, which is available here, reflects the outcomes of the consultative process initiated last February. It will be the reference document for the upcoming meeting on the IDI, which will take place on 18-19 September 2023 in Geneva with remote participation, during the annual meetings of the Expert Group on Telecommunications/ICT Indicators (EGTI) and of the Expert Group on ICT Household Indicators (EGH).

Please refer to my previous circular for information about the IDI meeting, including registration.

I thank you for your contribution to the process.

Yours faithfully,
