

Michele Wu-Bailey

Ms. Michele Wu-Bailey is an Assistant Bureau Chief in the International Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). In her role she advises the Bureau Chief and Commissioners on the development and articulation of international telecommunications policies, consistent with the priorities of the Commission. She works with the FCC team representing the Commission on international telecommunications matters at both domestic and international conferences and meetings, and assists with coordination of the Commission's preparation for such conferences and meetings. Ms. Wu-Bailey was part of the United States delegation to the WTDC in 2017 and the ITU Plenipotentiary in 2018, as well as ITU Council.

Ms. Wu-Bailey started as a legal advisor in the Global Strategy and Negotiation Division of the FCC's International Bureau in July 2011, as the regional specialist covering the Americas region. She has been the Vice-Chair of the Permanent Consultative Committee I Working Group on Policy and Regulation (WGPR) of the Inter-American Telecommunication Commission (CITEL) since 2013. In the preparation toward WTDC 2021, she serves as one of the focal points for CITEL in the TDAG Working Group on the Strategic and Operational Plan (TDAG-SOP). Most recently, she serves as Vice-Chair for the Americas region in the Council Working Group for Strategic and Financial Plan 2024-2027.

Ms. Wu-Bailey has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Stanford University and a Juris Doctorate from American University, Washington College of Law.
