

Engineer Maha Ziad Yousef Mouasher
IT Regulatory Officer- Telecommunication Regulatory Commission of Jordan

Tel: +962 6 5501120, Ext.2232 Mobile: +962 7 95530670 Email: maha.mouasher@trc.gov.jo

Acting as an IT Regulatory Officer at the Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (TRC), she was nominated for “Distinguished Public Servant Award” of year 2014- 2015.

Her Experience extends to over 7 years of theoretical and practical experience in various fields of telecommunications, computer engineering and networking issues. Her specialty focused on the fields of security, privacy, electronic authentication and consumer protection and regulating matters.

She joined TRC in 2010, and participated in various international workshops, conferences and specialized working committees related to drafting number of drafted Laws, bylaws and regulations related to ICT and media sectors.

Before and through her career, she participated in various positions, notably:

- Participated drafting guidelines related to Safe use of the Internet which accommodated specific chapters to tutors, parents and children;
- Participated in various conferences and international workshops related to Safety and Security in cyberspace and Network Security most recently the one hosted by NATO accompanied by Directorate of Information Security;
- Participated as a trainer in the workshop titled " our children are our ambassadors";
- Represented TRC in various specialized working committees related to TRC's regulatory role;
- Participated in the development of the Electronic transactions regulatory framework to promote the Electronic authentication through licensing and accrediting Certification Authorities in Jordan;
- Participated in the development of New Press and Media Framework; amending the Press and publication Law, Audio and visual Media Law and the Radio and TV broadcasting and rebroadcasting Bylaw;
- Represented TRC at the FTTH workshop as EMERG Chair;

She acted as a Chair for of the IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Inc) Mutah University branch, and volunteered in multi social fields, currently she acts as a volunteering member at Caritas- Jordan and at SIWAR part of King Hussein Cancer Foundation. Moreover, she was one of the success stories in the "Achieving E-quality in the ICT Sector (AEQ)" program issued by USAID accompanied by UN Women and Cisco Networking Academy.

Eng. Maha Ziad Mouasher holds a Master's Degree in Computer Engineering and Networking from The University of Jordan in 2014. She also has couple of publications in journal and book chapter related to “Quality Analysis of VoIP in Real-Time Interactive Systems over Lossy Networks”.